F Post 6-14-69

BULLETIN

President Richard Nixon's helicopter was almost forced to land at a ballpark in Thurmont because of last evening's thunderstorm on his weekend visit to Camp David, it was reported late last night.

The pilot had dipped over the ballpark in an apparent effort to avoid the storm, but didn't land and proceeded to Camp David.